ATLANTA BANKERS WILL
RUSH COTTON POOL PLANSteps Already Taken to Give
State Banks Full
Details

Pursuant to the action of Georgia bankers in approving the St. Louis cotton pool plan at their meeting in Atlanta yesterday, the necessary machinery is being put in motion in Atlanta to inform every bank in the state of the full details of the plan, to inform of the amount which it is expected to contribute, and receive the subscription.

James McFadden, of Atlanta, secretary of the Georgia Bankers' association, will calculate each bank's pro-rata share of the $30,000,000 pool. The plan is to have the $30,000,000 pool divided into 100,000 shares, each of $300. The Atlanta banks already have calculated their pro-rata share of the $30,000,000 pool.

McFadden is making the calculations for the banks over the state, a committee of Atlanta bankers are preparing a circular letter setting forth the St. Louis plan completely and in detail, and are preparing a suitable subscription blank.

The plan, which is ready, will be within a very short time, will be made available to every bank in the state. A statement of the pro-rata share of the subscription, and a subscription blank, will be properly filled out and returned to the committee in Atlanta.

As announced from dispatch from New York Wednesday night states that the plan of the $30,000,000 pool is practically assured by the action of New York bankers in agreeing to subscribe to the pool. The plan, which is ready, will be within a very short time, will be made available to every bank in the state. A statement of the pro-rata share of the subscription, and a subscription blank, will be properly filled out and returned to the committee in Atlanta.

Murder Will Out

No matter which Emperor wins, the people always lose, and censor or no censor, the real story of the war will be given to them. Week by week THE SATURDAY EVENING POST will tell the vital facts—not the news of battles, not the tawdry glory stuff, but the story of what war does to the man in the ranks—the “cannon fodder”—the man in the streets, the laborer, the little business man and the farmer; the women and children in the home, against whom finally all war is waged. Articles in this great series will appear every week.

Clothes That Keep a Man Young

This $30 Suit

PRESENT-DAY FASHION is militant and muscular. Its creed and code are "Look Young!" From the flip o' the hat to the tip o' the shoe the rallying years must be kept at arm's length.

The double-breasted coat or waistcoat belong under the head of youthful types.

The $30 suit that we specialize---and commend for its several good qualities---carries a double-breasted coat with "single" waistcoat---or single-breasted coat with "double" waistcoat. So that you may follow your fancy in the selection of a personal model.

Its further youthful aspect is the colorful refinement. Tho colors are varied and daringly combined, they're the "toning down" shades, green, gray, brown and blue, with often a faint sheen of gold rippling on the surface, warming up the fabric amazingly.

The fabrics themselves are deserving of honorable mention, and every model is an engaging type.

Engage one of these and BE young. Such aid is wonderful

Augusta Women to Establish Municipal Market

The plan of Augusta women to establish a municipal market will be of interest to women throughout the state. Tired of the soaring of prices and the high cost of living they have decided to meet the present emergency in a most practical and wise manner.

The market is to be in the open air and not in a building and is to be located in a section where housekeepers can go and do their purchasing at reasonable prices. The plan as now being sanctioned seems capable of filling an urgent and long felt want.

Country growers bringing produce to the city, garden stuff and poultry, eggs and fruit, will on given days be located in certain parts of the city and farmers will be enabled to exhibit their wares in the most attractive manner possible.

Housewives will go to the market to select what they wish, pay cash for it and take it home. The market will be strictly cash and the fact that delivery of goods will be done away with will aid in reducing the cost of living.

If the club women become interested the idea may admit of great expansion. Prices can be offered for the best display along the most sanitary lines, and mutual benefit will be derived by farmers and housekeepers who by mutual agreement co-operate to insure the success of the undertaking.

Parties Arranged for Dinner
Dance at Druid Hills Club
The opening dinner of the season at the Druid Hills club will be a very pleasant event of Thursday evening.

The picturesque and beautiful club house will be annually attractive with its decorations of bright fall flowers.

Several large parties are to be given in honor of the season's debutantes and a number of smaller ones will be given in honor of visitors spending the week in the city.

The Hupmobile
Car of the American Family

WHAT YOU GET.

Values are relative, that is the worth of what you get depends on what you pay for it. Says John M. Smith company, in this new Hup, for instance, it's plain that the value you get is greater than the value in other cars of higher price and no greater capacity, size or comfort.

And you won't have trouble finding cars that are no larger, carry no more than five passengers, yet cost more than the Hup.

In this car five persons ride in perfect ease.

Its long wheelbase affords plenty of room in the driver's seat and in the tonneau—room for all to relax and rest, with soft cushions and good springs to smooth the road's rough spots.

Your first ride in the new Hup—and you ought to take it as soon as you can—will charm you.

You'll see that it has, in addition to its generous passenger capacity, plenty of power, smooth-running, silent motor, transmission and axle, and a perfect wealth of high grade equipment and conveniences.

Telephone, and we'll send the car for that ride.

JOHN M. SMITH CO.

Sedan and coupe bodies especially built at the Hup factory, can be fitted to touring car and roadsters at very reasonable cost.

DEPUTY CHARGES DOCTOR AND WIFE WITH ASSAULT

A fight Wednesday in the home of Dr. J. H. Peagan, 431 Piedmont avenue, between the doctor and Court Deputy W. H. Mills, who had entered the house to make a civil levy, resulted in warrants being sworn out against the doctor and his wife Thursday morning, charging assault and battery and obstructing a legal process.

Dr. Peagan was released under $200 bond. No bond was required of Mrs. Peagan, who is said to be ill at her home. The case was set for a hearing to Judge J. E. Hilder's court at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Deputy Mills charges that when he went to the Peagan home Wednesday afternoon to make the levy, the doctor struck him without provocation, his seventeen-year-old son aided his father, and his wife, while the struggle was at its height, beat the deputy's head with a walking cane.

In defense, Dr. Peagan alleges that Mills could not make the levy as the doctor was a homestead on the property, that he was insulting, and used abusive language to Mrs. Peagan.

ODD FELLOWS TO MAKE PLANS FOR GRAND RALLY

W. B. Sloan, grand master of the Georgia district Odd Fellows, will meet with a committee from all subordinate lodges at 8 o'clock Thursday night at the Kimball house to arrange the program for the grand rally of district lodges at the auditorium in Atlanta on October 30, at which Judge R. Daniel, of Griffin, sovereign grand master of the world, J. B. Goodrich, sovereign grand secretary, and J. A. Hines, Atlanta, sovereign grand marshal, will be guests of honor. All lodges are urged to have representatives at the preliminary meeting Thursday night.

THEATERS

Music lovers in Atlanta have been discussing with enthusiasm this week the playing of Fritz Kreisler, cellist, and his sister, violinist, at the Forsyth theater. It is not often that a really excellent musical number, free from the odd or spectacular, appeals to a large audience. The bill is headed by Joe Howard and Madeline McCabe, who have an excellent singing and dancing act.

This week is going to be another big winner for the Grand, record crowds are expected. "Boy-a-Bale," the Atlanta made movie which features local society women, city and county officials and Lew Dockstader, the famous minstrel. This film is an added attraction to the regular program and the proceeds of its engagement go to help relieve the cotton situation of the south. "After the Ball," a big six part feature adapted from Charles K. Harris' famous song success, opens today for a three day engagement. It features a Herbert Kellner and Eddie Shannon, well known stars of the legitimate stage. Now that the world's series baseball games are over the Grand is running on its regular schedule of performance hours, from 8 noon to 10:30.

Cold Weather Due To Follow Rain, Says the Forecaster

A driving rain that has pelted Atlanta off and on for the last day or so, will be followed by a drop in temperature if it stops Thursday night in accordance with the prediction of the weather bureau.

Since Tuesday afternoon Atlanta has been in the clutches of the storm, caused, says Mr. von Hermann, by disturbances over south Georgia. The rain let up for a bit Wednesday afternoon, but came down again with renewed force early during the night, and Thursday morning was sweeping the streets with a steady downpour that drove people indoors and kept them there.

The "Thursday night" said Mr. von Hermann, "and Friday should be a clear, cold day, not very cold, but chilly and disagreeable to everyone to don his winter wear and start thinking about the coal supply."
